

Law, Immigration - Listen to the complete interview of Sarah Paoletti, J.D.

[Clinical Supervisor and Lecturer, Transnational Legal Clinic
University of Pennsylvania Law School.](#)

Introduction Track: Keywords/Phrases

- Transnational law
- Persecution
- Asylum
- Liberian Truth and Reconciliation Commission
- Undocumented laborers

All sample questions are designed in order to apply internet search as a basis for exploring and discovering new information.

Sample Questions

- Dr. Paoletti's work provides a venue for law students to learn by actually practicing law under her supervision. What are other ways a student can "learn by doing" in the legal field? Are you surprised that all law students do not have this experience? Do you think it makes someone a better lawyer?
- What sorts of issues might someone working in immigration rights address?
- Research the Liberian Truth and Reconciliation Commission. How did it come about, and what sorts of civil problems has Liberia faced? What is its current state and outlook?
- What are the International Human Rights Norms? Who might benefit from them in the United States?
- What are the transnational issues in your area that a similar legal clinic might address? Is there a population or multiple populations that would benefit from such aid?
- Does this area of legal work appeal to you? Explain your rationale.